

OLIVE LEAVES

Charles Edward Morris

Mount Olive College
Mount Olive, North Carolina
Volume XVI

Through the stillness of the night, the 60's creep slowly out, and the 70's come roaring in with a ray of light and a spark of hope. Gone are the 60's, but the traces of a world of chaos, strife, war, rioting, revolutions, and tears linger on. What the future holds no one knows for sure, but everyone has hope for a brighter world.

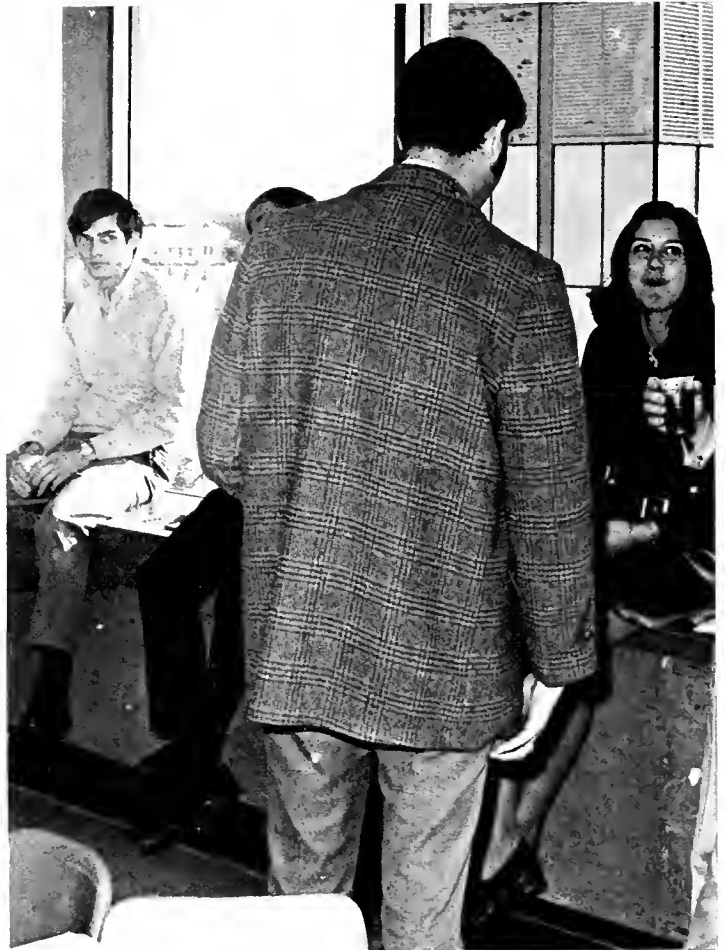

There must be a better way. There must be more to life than war and hatred and death. Stop. Relax. Take a break from the rat race. Look about at the world. Nature harbors here; not all is bad. Listen! The world cries out for love and peace. Who will answer?

William Tyndall

Dedication

How do you thank a man who has given so many hours of his time, energy, and resources to the students of Mount Olive College? How do you let him know how much you appreciate his kindness and consideration? When he shoulders the problems of all the students, when he deals individually with each problem, and when he seeks every possible solution, how do you thank him? There is no way to express complete appreciation. However, in an effort to do so, we dedicate the 1970 OLIVE LEAVES to William Tyndall.

A great deal of work has been produced in preparation for the 1970 OLIVE LEAVES. Special recognition is attributed to Mr. Charles Kraft. Without his photography there would have been no annual. Much thanks goes to the advisor, Mr. George Stevenson and also Mrs. Lorelle Martin, who graciously assisted when needed. Distinctive acknowledgment is made to Barbara Allen for her perseverance and assistance.

The student of Mount Olive College is aware of the past, involved in the present, and planning for the future. He is extremely conscious of the situation the world is in today. Perhaps it is he who holds the future. Perhaps he can spread love and peace.

Charles Edward Morris
